Power and aggression are the main pursuits of Dragon .Dragons are a tenacious Sign who knows exactly what it wants and is determined to get it.

Dragons possess a certain natural, charming charisma that ensures they always remain the centre of attention in social situations.

Dragons are considered to be very lucky in relationships. Their friends and partners are always keen to hear what the dragon has to say and when it comes to dispensing advice, he invariably has the all the ears listening.

Emotionally, the dragons cannot digest failure. They make hue and cry over defeat and can't accept it with grace.

Power is what the Dragon wants and truly believes it deserves. They always crave for the role of leader .They make solid leaders too knowing instinctively what needs to be done to stay on top.

It would be in the interests of Dragons if they absorb the principles of flexibility, compassion and tolerance. Being high and mighty can serve to inspire others, but it also keeps Dragons from living their lives to the fullest.
