Creativity and subliminal thoughts are the trademarks of the goat sign.

Goats need plenty of time alone in which to feed its imagination.

This Sign makes a great craftsman or artisan, or any occupation that allows its mind the full range of freedom. Goats tend to be very ad-hoc in their way of doing things.

In fact, Goats tend not to be very materialistic in general, finding plenty of riches in their own thought processes.

Goats tend to have a hard time with romance; they are subject to bouts of anxiety over seemingly inconsequential things. Goats need plenty of love, support and open reassurance from their lovers. If a relationship enters troubled waters, the Goat will often pull away into its own shell.

Goats should learn to relax and let others run the show from time to time. Once they understand about relationships, life will be a field of daisies.
